TOMATOES TO SELL FOR $25 MINIMUM ROADSIDE THIS YEAR

....BERKELEY — The USDA War Board here said today a minimum price of $25 a ton had been set on round varieties of tomatoes in Northern and Central California, and $27 a ton in Southern California.

The price on pear-shaped varieties will be $27 throughout the State. Comparable prices in 1942 were $17.50 a ton for the entire State.

These are minimum prices to be paid growers by canners certified to sell to the Government.

"Southern California" was defined as the eight southernmost counties, excluding Santa Maria and Lompoc areas of Santa Barbara County.

The quotations were on a "roadside" basis and canners were asked to make contracts on that basis, eliminating necessity of allowing for haulage.

INSTITUTIONAL COFFEE USERS APPLY TODAY!

Friday of this week is the last day for institutional users of coffee to apply for their February allotments, without being penalized, the Washington Township War Price and Rationing Board advises this newspaper.

Every three months thereafter tires of C or bulk book holders must be inspected again, and your certificate signed by the inspector. The next deadline will fall on May 31.

B book holders will have a four month period until their next deadline, which will fall on June 30. But February 28 is the first deadline.

The closing time for A book holders is March 31, and inspections must be made subsequently before the end of the following six months period, which will fall on September 30.

These instructions for the motoring public have been given this newspaper by the Washington Township War Price and Rationing Board at Niles, (and they have nice new green linoleum on their floor now!)

SCHNEIDER'S BODY FOUND TUESDAY BY BOY SCOUTS

Just one week after his disappearance early on Tuesday of last week the lifeless body of Jacob J. Schneider, 75, was found Tuesday forenoon by a group of Scouts from the Niles Troop, who had searched diligently up Niles Canyon every day for the retired water company employee, who had spent most of his life in this district.

The discovery of one of his house slippers on Monday spurred the search which was engaged in by Deputy Sheriffs Henry Vervais and Robert Moore, grammar and high school students, and Boy Scouts under the direction of Committeeman Lewis Lewis.

The body was found on the Vargas ranch up Clark Canyon behind the California Pottery plant. It was believed he had been dead about three days and had succumbed to exposure and old age. He had been suffering lapses of memory recently, according to his widow Rose, who survives him, as well as two sisters, Mrs. Emma A. Curtis of Oakland and Mrs. Flora Heaney of Alameda, who aided in the search.

The Berge Mortuary at Niles took charge of the body Tuesday afternoon. A coroner's inquest was held Wednesday with natural causes determined as the reason for death. The funeral was held Thursday at 2 o'clock from the Berge Mortuary with Reverend D. Q. Grabill officiating. Closing services were held at the Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland.

The Niles Boy Scout Troop and their leaders deserve a great deal of credit for the persistence they showed in the search, which occupied six days.

PILOT'S BROKEN BODY FOUND IN SALT MARSH

The broken body of the Army pilot who crashed to his death at high speed in the salt marsh a mile south of the Leslie Salt works on December 30 was found on January 28 by an excavating crew who were searching for the motor of the destroyed Army plane as well.

Every bone of the body was broken and the contents of the cavities of the body had been expelled by the force of the crash. The body was prepared for burial by a San Anselmo undertaker and it was shipped to the young officer's birthplace at Mobeetie, Texas. He was only 21 years old. His plane went into a power dive and failed to pull out while on routine flight maneuvers with two other planes.

J. W. Myers received word last week of the death of his mother in Wisconsin on Sunday, January 24.

HEARST COUNCIL WORKS ON YOUTH LABOR PROBLEM

CENTERVILLE — Demands for one co-ordinator who would have authority to enforce regulations regarding use of students in harvest programs were expressed by speakers on the panel discussion at the recent meeting of Phoebe Hearst Council of P.T.A. at the Washington Union High School.

Necessity for supervision, proper sanitary facilities in the fields, planned recreation in off-work hours, sliding wage scales and safe transportation were emphasized. Importation of Mexicans and out-of community students will be necessary for the 1943 crops and elementary pupils who proved particularly satisfactory last year will be the chief local source for harvesters, it was declared. High school boys will be absorbed by local canneries and other concerns with war contracts in Southern Alameda County, speakers said.

Approximately a dozen bills are now before the State Legislature regarding student labor, T. A. Perkins, director of the U.S.D.A. War Board said. Others on the panel led by Jack Rees of the high school were O. B. Paulsen, district superintendent of Hayward schools; A. E. O'Donnell, representing the Federal Employment Bureau and Robert Looney of the Y.M.C.A.

Paulsen suggested that in lieu of longer vacations, schools might be put on a 12-months basis with harvest work as part of the school's vocational program. Perkins advocated more authority on the part of schools in the student harvest project and Rees claimed co-operation of parents is needed. "Teachers can't make Johnny and Mary work in the tomatoes. Parents can," he said.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Soups your whole Family will enjoy

It's high time for those hearty, satisfying meal-in-themselves soups to stage a comeback, for they're the kind of offerings that do a nourishing wartime job. Simple though they are, they can offer everything in the way of good eating. And it's just the right time of year to let them do delightfully appetizing things to your menu.

BRING BACK THE SOUP POT — Remember the soup pot that simmered continuously on the back of Grandmother's stove? Every bone, bit of meat trimming, leftover meat, and drippings went into the pot to make a rich stock for a variety of substantial soups. The idea is just as good as it ever was. Save every iota of trimming, rind, scrap and bone, put them in a pot, cover with water, and simmer covered until every bit of good is gleaned from them. Strain from the makings, and you have a rich stock to serve as a basis for soups, gravies and sauces.

BUILDING A SOUP—To this stock, add the water you've saved from cooking vegetables (they've more flavor and vitamins than water), vegetables, rice, barley, spaghetti, potatoes, or anything else that pleases your palate. If you have leftover vegetables, use them. Just heat them in the soup, and be careful not to overcook any of the vegetables, for they'll be mushy and not so appetizing.

Season to taste, and remember that there are other seasonings besides salt and pepper. A dash of meat sauce, catsup, thyme, the juice of a lemon, onion, and garlic are just a few things that will give personality to soups.

CREAMED SOUPS—From the same stock, you can make any number of delicious cream soups. Thicken the stock with 2 tbsps. flour and 2 tbsps. melted butter or substitute and two cups of milk, plain or diluted evaporated. When thick, add the vegetable waters, about 2 cups, and the cooked vegetables. Mix well and heat to almost boiling and serve in generous portions.

CANNED AND DEHYDRATED SOUPS—For those quick soups that start the meal off successfully or serve as a light meal in themselves, canned soups or dehydrated soups which come in both cans and packages, are the happy answer. Dilute them if called for with vegetable water if you have it. These soups are downright delicious and do a rollicking good job of supplementing that meat or meatless course.

REMEMBER [illegible] IS A WAR MATERIAL • USE IT WISELY

How to Save Money
Save Heat
Save Fuel

The saving of Natural Gas fuel is very important today. War industries going full blast are using an increasing amount of this fuel. It takes a huge amount of Natural Gas to heat homes, to cook and to heat water. There will be enough if each user will save fuel by eliminating waste heat.

Here Are Ten Heat-Saving Suggestions:

1. Check Heat Leaks at Windows. If there is a stream of cold air leaking through or around a window, plug that leak. As temporary weather stripping insert folded wrapping paper or newspaper between the window sash and window frame.
2. Close Bedroom Door at Night. If you open bedroom windows at night keep the bedroom door closed. Place a rug against the bottom of the door. There is no need to chill the rest of the house during sleeping hours.
3. Close Fireplace Damper. If you have a furnace and fireplace, close the damper when the fireplace is not in use. More furnace heat is sucked up a chimney than is produced by a grate fire.
4. Close Garage Doors Under House. If your garage is under the house keep garage doors closed. Open garages scoop in cold air and chill floors unnecessarily.
5. Overheating your House is NOT Healthful. Every degree of heat in your house over 65 degrees uses up from 2% to 6% more fuel. Keep comfortable, but do not overheat your rooms.
6. Do Not Use your Range as a Heater. Using a range oven as a heater is inefficient and shortens the range's life. Use your range for its one important job—cooking. Remember that these days a range may be hard to replace.
7. When the Sun Comes Out—Turn out your Heater. It is a good rule to keep lower heating temperature during the day when you are active about the house. Use no heat when the sun shines and outside temperature is 65 degrees.
8. Shut Off Unused Rooms. Turn off the heat in unused rooms and close the doors and you will have more heat for the other rooms.
9. Open and Close Outside Doors Promptly. A lot of cold air rushes in when outside doors are opened. Warn the children particularly about this. Do not stand and talk in an open door.
10. Keep Window Locks Fastened Tightly. Window catches, especially on French windows, work loose. Fasten these catches down hard. This forces the sash against the window frame and checks incoming draft.

Farm WAR NEWS

From the Alameda County USDA War Board

* * *

Flax, Sweet potatoes, grain sorghums, dry peas and peanuts, have been added to the list of crops of which an increased production is being asked. Secretary Wickard last week announced that production goals for these important crops had been revised upward from original figures and that incentive payments will be made to farmers who produce more than 90 per cent of the goals established for their farms. An additional appropriation of $100,000,000 will be askd to finance the program. This is an addition to similar program for dry beans, potatoes, and fresh vegetables announced earlier.

* * *

PEA PRICE UP

The minimum canning pea price will be $73.00 per ton. These prices which are on a roadside basis are the minimum which canners may pay in order to be eligible to sell to the government.

* * *

So far no increases have been announced in the quota of new machines for Alameda county, which are subject to rationing by the county machinery rationing committee.

* * *

Bits and Pieces: Needs of the armed forces and lend-lease took an estimated 12 to 13 percent of 1942's total food production. This will be boosted to nearly a quarter in 1943. . . . . Rations of eggs to ordinary British consumers have been increased to one fresh egg a month. Nursing-mothers invalids and infants get a dozen a month, and each person gets the powdered equivalent of a dozen a month . . . . Lids and closures for home canning will be plentiful in 1943. Manufacturers are permitted to make 125 precent as many top seal lids as during the base period and 80 percent as many screw lids.

SUGAR STILL IMPORTANT

Added emphasis on beans, potatoes, and other crops does not lessen the importance of sugar beats, according to the War Board. Sugar is still considered an "essential" crop, and beet growers will be given consideration in the allocation of manpower, machinery, and supplies. Growers are urged to continue production sufficient to keep processing plants operating at capacity. The California state sugar beet goal is 204,000 acres, compared with a 1942 production of approximately 182,000 acres.

FEED CEILINGS SET

In a move to halt the upward trend in livestock, poultry and dairy production costs, OPA is placing ceiling prices on feeds not previously covered. Ceilings have been established on mixed foods and maximum prices will be placed on alfalfa hay. Alfalfa ceilings will be at parity, which is about $19.50 per short ton, loose, on a farm bases.

GROWERS ASKED FOR MORE BEANS, POTATOES

A call for more dry beans and potatoes from Alameda county farms to meet revised food requirements of America and other United Nations has been issued by H. W. Young, chairman of the county USDA War Board and the AAA committee. A new government program offering AAA payments and price supports to growers who increase production of these two important war crops has been announced by the department of Agriculture.

Alameda county's share of the newly stepped-up national goals is 200 acres of beans and 600 acres of potatoes. This compares with a production of not more than 50 acres of beans and approximately 300 acres of potatoes in 1942. Chairman Young explained that goals represent a minimum rather than maximum, as the two crops can be used in practically unlimited quantities.

To make it possible for farmers to increase production, prices of potatoes will be supported at 90 percent of parity and payments of 50 cents per bushel, based on the normal yield of the farm, will be paid for each acre planted after February 1 in excess of 90 percent of the farm goal established by the county AAA committee, up to 110 percent of the goal.

Bean prices will be supported at $5.60 per hundredweight, and payments of $20.00 per acre will be made for acreage above 90 percent and up to 110 percent of the farm goal. Support prices will be based on new crop U.S. No. 1 grade beans, cleaned and bagged, f.o.b. county shipping points.

Young emphisized that in order to be eligible to participate in either program, growers must have their farms signed up under the 1943 food for freedom registration. Most farms in the county are already registered, he said, but some growers have neglected to sign up.

Notices of farm goals will be mailed soon. Growers who believe their goals incorrectly or unfairly established will be given a 15-day period following receipt of their notices in which to file an appeal.

TAX DEDUCTIONS FOR AUTO OWNERS

Items which car owners are permitted to deduct when making out their income tax returns were listed today by the California State Automobile Association as follows:

State retail sales taxes on purchase of tangible personal property such as automobiles and accessories, but not the gasoline tax, can be deducted on the Federal tax return. State sales taxes are not deductible on the State income tax return.

All operating and maintenance expenses on automobiles used wholly for business, or pro rata share of such expenses if the car is used more than 50 percent for business. Expenses include depreceation usually figured at 20 percent per year on a passenger automobile.

A new amendment has broadened the definition of business use to include operation of an automobile for collection of income or for the management and care of property held for production of income.

All sums paid out during the year in registration fees, vehicle license fees, State and Federal use taxes, personal property and municipal taxes.

Insurance on cars used for business. Uncompensated losses due to damage or theft of cars used for business or pleasure. Uninsured personal injury or property damage claims paid due to accidents while the car is in use for business.

Interest on money borrowed for purchase of an automobile, when specified in the contract, and amout of financing charges but not the cost of insurance to protect finance company's interest.

Loss where a car used for business is sold at less than its depreciated value.

Employees who receive compensation for operating their cars can not deduct such expense unless the amounts received are declared as income.

Not deductible are the Federal taxes on oil, tires, tubes, accessories, new cars and trucks.

The amount paid for an automobile cannot be deducted.

ENLIST IN THE "MARCH OF DIMES"

After conferring with D. Walker Wear, National Director of Organization, and Joseph M. Schenck, State Chairman, Dan Marovich, Northern California Organizer, announces the March of Dimes Campaign Fund for Infantile Paralysis will be extended through this week to February 8. The week's continuance was decided because of the storms that interfered with the program collection in many parts of the State.

With President Roosevelt's birthday celebrated nationally last Saturday, (January 30th), those directing the drive in this part of the State said reports revealed a new record of success was achieved from various entertainments.

PROPERTY TAXES DROP CONSIDERABLY IN THIS COUNTY

Property tax levies by Alameda county and the schools and other districts in the county for this year total $14,934,479, down from the $15,312,454 levy for 1941-43, California Taxpayers' assiciation stated today, making public its study of property tax levies in California counties. City tax levies are not included, the association pointed out.

The levy for county current purposes for 1942-43 amounted to $5,446,735 compared with the $5,519,345 levied for 1941-42. The levy for county bonds was $570,781 compared with $559,629 for last year.

The total levy for school district current purposes in this county for 1942-43 was $6,524,459 while the levy for 1941-42 was $6,611,896. School bond levies amounted to $1,164,690 for the current year and to $1,419,351 for last year. Special district levies were $1,227,814 this year and $1,202,233 for 1941-42.

HOW TO REPLACE LOST LICENCE PLATE

If one automobile license plate has been lost, it is necessary for the motorist to surrender the remaining plate to the Department of Motor Vehicles in order to secure the new set, states the National Automobile Club. As a result, the license number on the new plates is different from that on the Gasoline Rationing Book.

In such instances, the O.P.A. advises that the motorist take his Gasoline Ration Book to his local board. The board will either correct the number, and initial the change, or issue a new book, tailoring it down to the equivalent of the book turned in. Also, the motorist shall take the Tire Inspection Record and have it corrected and have the number on the original application changed to coincide with the new number on the plates.

This procedure is very important, according to N.A.C., as failure not to have the correction made would result in the refusal, by gasoline station attendants, to accept coupons from a book showing a license number different from that on the plates.

WOMAN SUFFERS INJURIES IN CRASH

Mrs. Dolores George of Niles escaped with minor bruises when her car over-turned twice after colliding with one driven by William Coleman of Newark. Mrs. Coleman suffered a fractured knee and her 4-year-old daughter, Bertha, lacerations of the face. Both cars were badly damaged in the accident which occurred at the intersection of the Niles-Alvarado and Decoto Roads.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

Any American who is spending his money as he gets it—and trusting to the future to take care of itself — needs to take a good look at the cost sheets of this war.

The post-war future simply won't take care of itself, no matter how much wishful thinking we may indulge in. Nor will the government be able to take care of its improvident citizens after the war, regardless of who is in office, or how great the pressure may be for government hand-outs.

Quite to the contrary, the citizens of the United States, for many years to come, will have their hands full — taking care of the government and trying to pay off the stupendous war debt which is accumulating.

There'll be no money for doles, no matter how great the need may be. There'll be no money for subsidies. There may be mutiny on the bounty, but mutiny or not — there'll be no bounty, because the government's finances will be in just as bad shape as that of any of its citizens. And you can't get blood out of a turnip.

That's a hard-boiled statement, perhaps, but it's a truthful statemen — and one that every farmer, every business man, every professional man and every member of labor should read now and act on before it is too late. To many who suffered from privation and insecurity during the depression, the war has grought "good times" and the first fat salary checks in years. And many, unfortunately, are spending it as they get it, with no thought for tomorrow, despite the lean period of a few years back. Some, perhaps, think that when the slump comes, they can go back on relief — and it is that kind of thinking which desperately needs correcting, if human tragedies are to be averted. For when this war has ended, the well will have run dry. And those who can't provide for themselves will go hungry, no matter how much their government may want to help them.

The handwriting is on the wall —plain and unmistakable — and it will do us good to read it, for the American people have urgent need to retire their debts now and to practice rigid frugality, if tragic and chaotic conditions are to be averted when the "war boom" is suddenly ended.

The United States has started the New Year with a colossal public debt of 100 Billion Dollars—nearly twice what it was a year ago.

The first year of this war has cost us approximately 46 Billion Dollars — more than the total cost of our participation in World War I.

And staggering as this appears, the amounts already spent will be dwarfed by the amounts to be spent.

Budget officials bluntly estimate that we will spend 78 Bilion Dollars during the first six months of 1943. And no one has even dared to estimate what the last half of the year may cost us.

Billions, paradoxically, are so big that they aren't impressive to the average man or woman, for the individual being unaccustomed to dealing in such astronomical sums, reads them usually with little realization of what they represent.

Translated into human terms our war debt — just the present one, without the vast additions that will be made before the war is ended — equals a debt of $743.82 for each man, woman and child. Inasmuch as women and children (in normal times) are not usually gainfully-employed, the actual debt per family at this writing is somewhere between $2,000 and $3,000, with every likelihood that it may be doubled before the war is over.

Nor is that a debt which the "little man" can disregard comforting himself with the thought that the wealthy will pay it. If all the wealth of all the rich men in America were confiscated, it wouldn't make a dent in it. If all the farm income of America were confiscated, it still wouldn't pay it.

There's only one way that record shattering debt can be paid — and that's by the work and sweat of all America. And there'll be no hand-outs during that grim era, because there'll be nothing in the till to hand out.

Buying War Bonds now isn't only a way of helping your government; it's also a way of guarding your family against want and privation in the years to come. And paying off the mortgage on the farm now isn't just a way of helping Uncle Sam to beat off inflation; it's a practical way to make certain you'll have a farm a few years from now.

INCOME FROM TAXES SHOWS 65 PER CENT INCREASE

Income of the state and local governments in California in 1941-42 averaged $118.29 for each of the 7,425,000 people in the state on January 1, 1942, California Taxpayers' association study of Income and Expenditures of Government in California shows.

Per capita net income of the state and local governments of $118.29 for fiscal 1942 was 65 per cent higher than the $71.49 per capita income of fiscal 1933, the association stated. Total income for fiscal 1933 was $422,000,000, which is less than half the $878,000,000 income of the state and local governments for fiscal 1942.

Income of California state and local governments has been increasing much more rapidly than the population of the state, the Taxpayers' association declared. Since the $71.49 per capita revenue of fiscal 1933, the receipts of the state and local governments have grown by leaps and bounds, passing the $100 mark for fiscal 1938 and skyrocketing to $118.29 for fiscal 1942. In June, 1933 the association pointed out, the Riley-Stewart amendment to the state constitution, giving the legislature broad tax levying powers, was voted, and since then the total net revenue of the state and local governments has more than doubled.

"If the exactions of the state and local governments were cut back to the $100 mark per capita, a level passed only as recently as fiscal 1938, the people of California would have nearly $150,000,000 left in their pockets to pay a part of the huge Federal demands upon them," the Taxpayers' association declared. "Such reduction depends entirely on action by the people on every level of state and local government during the next few months of fiscal 1943."

STATE REPORTS BIGGEST CROP OF 1941 ANGLERS

SAN FRANCISCO — The State of California nad 453,159 licensed anglers in 1941, the greatest number in its history, and over twice the 1935 total. This is more than six percent of the population of the State and, at that,does not include boys and girls under eighteen, who can fish without a license. Some 150,000 of these anglers claimed residence in the Los Angeles area, and 120,000 in the San Francisco Bay region.

Estimates of the number of inland-water fish caught by these sportsmen in 1941 have just been released by the State Division of Fish and Game, based on questionaires mailed to a percentage of the licensees chosen at random. Such estimates are admittedly subject to error, but every effort is made to apply corrections, and to err on the conservation side.

Sixty percent of all reporting anglers fish for trout. The estimated catch 15,700,000 is the largest catch on record and compares with an estimate of 12,800,000 for 1939, the latest previous year for which figures are available. The average of 66 trout per angler may seem high. As a matter of fact, 50 percent of the reporting anglers caught less than 35 trout each. However, a few residents of outlying counties fortunate enough to be able to fish frequently can pile up seasonal catches sufficient to offset in the averages a large number of low catches by their less favored city competitors. Ten percent of the fishermen caught 30 percent of the trout.

Some trout were reported caught in every couty of the state with the exception of Imperial and San Francisco. However twelve counties accounted for over half of the total catch.

Striped bass were much less widely distributed than trout, over 50 percent of the total coming from two counties, Contra Costa and Solano. Marin, Alameda, Napa and Sacramento counties also contributed significant catched.

TIRE PRESSURE DROP

A sudden drop in temperature may cause air pressure in the average automobile tire to drop as much as five pounds, states the California State Automobile Association. This variation would have no great significance if it were not that a sudden rise in temperature will cause air pressure to increase. If a tire is under-inflated while the temperature is warm, this condition will naturally become worse when cold is encountered. Check air pressure in tires regularly.

POINT RATIONING WILL GIVE EQUAL FOOD DISTRIBUTION

The point system of national rationing of food will not only provide each individual in the United States with "share and share alike," but will eliminate some existing shortages, according to a statement issued today by Mr. Roeding chairman of the Washington Township War Price and Rationing Board at Niles.

"When the point system becomes effective, probably in the latter part of February," he said, "food stuffs now unavailable, because unusual buying has cleaned the shelves, will be back on the market. When meat is rationed, this commodity, so scarce in some parts of the Pacific Coast, can again be purchased, but in equal shares."

Mr. Roeding explained that the point system is the fairest method yet devised to provide for everyone, and at the same time insure adequate food for our fighting forces. Should the demand of our armed forces create a shortage of commodities for civilians, the point system will insure that what is left for civilians will be distributed fairly to all, he stated.

It was expained that "point rationing" is a system of rationing a group of related or similar commodities which can be substituted for one another in actual use. The system will become effective immediately upon the distribution of War Ration Book Two on a date not yet announced but believed to be in the latter part of February.

O.P.A. TO OPEN DISTRICT OFFICES IN CALIFORNIA

Decentralization of OPA operations on the Pacific Coast, with the creation of 11 district offices in the five states of Washington, California, Oregon, Arizona and Nevada, was announced in San Francisco today by Harry F. Camp, regional OA administrator.

Under the plan, to be in effect regionally by Feb. 15, the present six state offices (California has two) will be established as district offices. The district offices will be located at San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Fresno and Sacramento in California.

Each office, Camp said, will be staffed with price-control rationing, legal and administrative personnel invested with authority to execute the various OPA programs in their respective areas and answerable only to regional headquarters in San Francisco.

Camp said creation of the 11 offices "will bring the OPA programs that much closer to the average citizen and merchant."

"Under this plan their personal problems, we are certain will henceforth be given speedier and more intimate consideration,

"Each district office will be able to process requests, petitions and problems-of-local concern without the necessity of submitting them to higher administrative levels, in many instance great distances away.

"This does not mean that district offices will be able, under the law, to make available to their own people concessions denied to citizens of other areas. But it will obviate considerable delay and confusion in getting done within a reasonable time many things which require and are entitled to action.

"War Price and Rationing Boards, whose members have contributed so much to this tremendous task, will henceforth work directly with the district offices, permitting a closer contact with administrative personnel. We look for this operative and administrative adjustment to greatly increase efficiency in serving the 600 boards in this region."

NATURAL GAS RATES TO BE REDUCED AGAIN

Natural gas rates will be reduced again, effective February 15, throughout the territory served by Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Users will save $1,450,000 a year on the basis of the company's current business.

Rates are being lowered by the utility despite substantial increases in operating costs and taxes and in sharp contrast to the rising trend of other commodity prices.

This is the second gas rate reduction placed in effect by the company within the past year and the seventh major rate cut since the introduction of natural gas service, in 1929-30. When the change was made from manufactured to natural gas in those years, rate payers were benefited by an annual saving of $8,139,000 in their bills because of the higher heat value of natural gas. The total of annual savings through rate reductions since and including 1929-30 now is increased to $18,972,200.

The lower rates, to be made effective on all meter readings on and after February 15, were fixed after an exhaustive study of the natural gas rate structure by the California State Railroad Commission and P. G. and E. engineers. The new schedules represent a reclassification of city, suburban and rural areas, based chiefly on the number of customers served and the density of customers in relation to investment required to provide the service. Population, heat value of natural gas supplied, earnings, and other rate making factors also were recognized in determining the amount of reductions.

Because of these factors, the percentage reduction is not the seme in all cities and communities but varies, being generally greatest for those communities where rates were relatively high. The total reduction of $1,450,000 represents five per cent of the company's annual gas revenue from all residential and commercial customers.

JANUARY 30, 1943.

This date is much more important in the history of mankind than most people realize. It dates the end of 10 years of Hitlerian "joy" — as represented by million of dead Germans, millions of broken, living bodies, millions of broken homes, and a great nation about to be broken.

Hitler did not broadcast his usual anniversary "message of joy" (and bombast and hate) on this anniversary date: he was too busy retreating with his beaten troops on the Russian front.

He left the dirty work to his gabbling henchman Goering . . but the RAF got there first. Just as the broadcast started the bombs fell and the empty broadcast was resumed an hour or more later by remote control from an air raid shelter. It consisted of music — without words. The German people know what is going on and lying words can no longer gloss over the bitter prospect of defeat and the required "unconditional surrender."

This date also represents a vital coincidence: on the same day that Hitler lied his way into the Chancellorship over half-blind Von Hindenburg, then a German "president" America also welcomed a new president who did not lie his way into power: he was duly elected by vote of the people he was to govern.

As Roosevelt represents the best in Christian life so Hitler represents the worst in pagan existence, Good, of course, will overthrow evil, and the age-old process is now approaching its dramatic and bloody climax.

It is interesting also to note that on the recent January 30, the showing of the dirty, crooked-cross nazis flag was forbidden throughout Germany, indicating the nazis know they are now discredited and are becoming ashamed and afraid to show their symbol.

The real Germany, please remember, still has an all but forgotten national flag which shows three colors vertically, the first of which is black. The new Germany will eliminate the black from its flag: surely enough innocent German blood has been spilled under Hitler to wash the darkness from that nation's national emblem. Black does not occur in any of the flags of the United Nations, and only a few show a touch of yellow. The predominating colors are red, white and blue in various arrangements, with the United States flag of course, showing the loftiest and most beautiful combination of these vivid colors. After the war our flag we hope will show a brilliant, cerulean (for heaven) blue in place of the indigo now fielding the glorious 48 stars.

If there has been any darkness or shadow in our background, it, too, is now being washed clean in the blood of Americans. Thus do nations and their symbols earn eternal glory.

January 31, is also the birth date of the Duke of Windsor, former King of England, who gave up a throne for a woman.

In Robert Hichen's once famous play, The Garden of Allah, the leading man gives up his love for a woman in favor of his duty to the Church. That is a choice which only a man's conscience can direct. . . . . Hitler and the nazis don't have any conscience or any Church. Hitler is "god" which makes we free Americans laugh, as we laugh at the ancestor-worshipping Japanese who believe their emperor is the "son of heaven". Only people have sons; heaven doesn't have any.

1943 is going to be the epic year in the history of man-unkind. — W.W.

TEN YEARS ENDS IN SILENCE

Hitler's Ten Years of Joy (?), begun with such bombast on January 30, 1933 ended in dead silence last Saturday. He was too busy retreating from the Russians to want to say anything.

Thus ended his "zehn" (really in-sane) years of greed, lust and brutality. The sooner that madman is silenced forever, the better for humanity.

A MESSAGE FROM HON. ALFRED E. SMITH

EMPIRE STATE, INC.
NEW YORK

ALFRED E. SMITH
PRESIDENT

In order to finance the War and to uphold the hands of President Roosevelt in his fight against inflation, we have all been asked to invest 10% of our earnings in War Bonds.

Aside from the undisputed fact that it is a very sound investment our government is merely asking us to protect ourselves by the investment of this 10%. Compare that to what is being done by the Axis nations to their own people. There is no request for investment there; they simply take the money away from their citizens, to say nothing about what is being done to the occupied countries where all forms of property have been seized.

There is no doubt about our ultimate victory but if you do your share you are helping to bring the War to a close before there is too great a waste of money and material, to say nothing about our boys who are at the front battling for the liberties that we have enjoyed in our country down through the ages.

Alfred E. Smith

THE WORMS TURN

With the recent fall of Tripoli without a fight, the last remnant of the resurgent "Roman empire" as visualized and fought for by Mussolini and his deluded legions, ceased to be just six years after the Rape of Ethiopia began. The dream of empire is dead, and so is Mussolini, politically.

The same week commemorates the 10th. anniversary of Hitler's accession to power. And he too is on the skids and on the way out.

Diplomatic sources in Germany, the Associated Press reports last week "feared that Hitler would make a speech in which he would blame his reverses on everything and everybody except himself"! And that's a tacit admission that Adolph's vainglory now becomes wane-glory.

The despatch goes on to say: "Alfred Rosenberg, the ruthless nazi political philosopher, said in a speech at Berlin Sunday: "Germany today lives through the most decisive and fateful hours of its history". Begging your pardon, Alfred — you ain't seen nuttin' yet. By summer half a dozen of your slave states will have successfully revolted; Gestapo members will be murdered wherever they are found, and the Anglo-British ring of steel will be pressing at Germany's throat. In the homeland this time, Alfred; the Allies let you Teutonic skunks off too easy when the last war blew up.

"For the first time in the war" admitted a German newspaper, (printing the truth for once!) "the German people must face a defeat of some magnitude. That's misinformation: the German troops have been facing defeat for months past; only the German people have not been told the truth about it. "Britain in this war refused to be beaten by any catastrophe" the same newspaper admitted despairingly. So it is, nazis: neither Britain nor the U. S. can ever be beaten by liars and devils like yourselves and the Japanese. This is a Christian era.

Quoth another German newspaper: "Everything in the German Reich is at stake including the existence of every German. . Annihilation threatens from the east . . the right to a peaceful life has vanished."

What about the rights of other peaceful peoples, the Dutch, the Czechs, the Poles, the Belgians, as well as your own, whose peace was shattered the minute you blood-lusting Huns grasped the sword in order to fill your own fat bellies while starving them?

Truth crushed to earth will rise again and so will all free-dom loving people. The nazis' time is short and retribution is now under way.

The worms are turning, and lying propaganda is on its way out. Even the seven devils begged for mercy in Christ's presence.

FANCY FLIGHTS

Erwin Rommel now spells his first name with two "r's" . . he Err-ed when he thought he could win.

He got his military To(e)-bruk several months ago and he has Ben-Gaz-ing hopefully towards Bizerte ever since. He finds he can Tun(e)-isia-r when not weighted down with Italian deadheads, even though it is still just as hard to get at Sfax.

With the loss of Ethiopia and Libya the Italian non-fascists have found all Ill Duce's promises to be a Tripol-i.

We can Bi-zerte-an the Allies will win all of North Africa because Americans have de Gaulle! It will Mak-nassy reading as the nazis are cut off at Bone's end. Al-giers to the defeated! The nazis' Tun-is changing . .

"AVOID FOREIGN ENTANGLEMENTS"

George Washington's admonition to the young American government back in 1790 to "avoid foreign entanglements" now goes definitely by the boards. We cannot now avoid foreign entanglements even should we wish to do so.

Our isolationists have done their best, but they see it is useless. California's Hiram Johnson and Senator Lodge after the last war was successfully won, obeyed Washington's injunction and prevented the United States from joining the League of Nations, — thus inadvertently throwing away our victory in the last war.

When this war ends we HAVE to help feed and reorganize the shattered peoples of Europe and Asia. We have to set up and participate in a world police force, along with the other victorious nations, to be in position to slap down any future mad upstarts like Hitler, Mussolini, Tojo and their ilk, the minute they raise their ugly faces.

How many more of the Founding Fathers' injunctions we will have to discard after the coming peace only time will tell, We can hope our priceless heritage of free enterprise will be restored again — without government interference — after this war is won.

So long as misguided Kaisers and crepe-paper-hangers are going to upset the peace of the world, including the United States, twice in most current lifetimes, Uncle Sam will now take a hand to prevent a repitition of these unwonted holacausts.

The new objective now, to emerge from the existing "emergency" is a Confraternity of Nations "with malice towards none, with charity for all" — with enough food, religious liberty, and free trade to make and keep all nations happy.

As Europe and Asia have not been able to conduct themselves peaceably and happily, the Big Four will now do it for them.

Read official Washington's picture of the Post War Plan, written by Kingsbury Smith, in the January Reader's Digest. It is the most complete and satisfactory account yet to appear in print.

THE JAPS ARE SELLING U. S. RUBBER

Believe it or not: rubber from the Jap-captured lands of Malaya and the Dutch East Indies is being sold by the Japanese to Uncle Sam, with the Japs knowledge and consent; also official Washington's!

This fascinating fact has been dug up by Ray Tucker, whose syndicated column in the daily newspapers is priceless.

It seems the Jap war lords want money; so they permit crude rubber to be carried in small vessels to Australia where of all things — a Chinaman acts as broker, resells the commodity to Uncle Sam and it is hurriedly trans-shipped to New York.

And why not? The French and Germans swapped coal and iron ore in the last war; the Rebels sold their cotton to the Union side in the Civil War, to make uniforms for the Yanks; for years, Zaharoff, the fabulous munitions maker, now happily dead, sold arms and munitions to both sides in all wars.

"Money talks" in war as in peace; we need the rubber, and the Japs need the money. Officialdom shrugs its collective shoulders and states "C'est la guerre!" and the odd trade goes on.

Wanna be a "Powarp?"

Join the parade . . there are millions of us.

AS YE SOW, SO SHALL YE EAT!

The Victory Gardener may get blisters on his hands and a kink in his back—and he is almost certain to take some good-natured ribbing from his friends and neighbors—but during the Spring and Summer, his dinner table is quite likely to be the envy of the neighborhood. The shortage of vegetables and berries and fruits during the coming season, according to all reliable surveys, will be much more acute than that of last year—and many vegetables, due to the lack of labor and the fact that farmers have been asked to devote their acreage to staples, simply won't be on the market.

A war garden isnt a fad; it is a practical contribution to relief of the manpower and food shortage problems — and practical insurance that your family dinner table will have an abundance of good food, despite rationing and other wartime restrictions. The Victory Gardeners might well adopt the slogan: "As ye sow, so shall ye eat!" From the present indications, it may prove to be the literal truth.

SCOUTING MAKES MEN, AND SOLDIERS, TOO.

In 1918, the Boy Scout Movement in America was only eight years old. Today — and this is Boy Scout Week — it is 33. The important difference to the Nation at War is apparent when one realizes that in Uncle Sam's great Army, 25 per cent of the selectees are former Boy Scouts. The percentage is still higher in the enlisted brackets — and more than two-thirds of the professional military leaders who attended West Point or Annapolis were Scouts in their boyhood years.

The Boy Scouts of America is not a military organization. The ideals for which it stands are the antithesis of militarism. But Scout training produces men — men of character and decency, men who cooperate for the common good, men who have known Freedom in the fields and on the waters. Discipline and devotion are not new to them, and initiative is at the core of their being.

Colin Kelley was a Scout. So were John James Powers, John Bulkeley and "Butch" O'Hare. Scouting's roll of honor lists countless more. "Be Prepared!" was their motto, when they were Scouts. We honor them, and their example, when we share with today's Boy Scouts another birthday of their organization. May it live long and wax mightily, for the good of us all!

They may not know it yet, but foreign language schools, where youngsters of Japanese, Italian or other foreign descent have been indoctrinated with alien ideologies in the past, are soon to be shuttered. A bill introduced by Senator Tenney would place all language schools under strict supervision of the State Board of Education. And the Legislature will enact it.

REVERSING U. S.

Soviet Russia was the enigma when this war started: nobody knew whether she would throw in with or against Germany, the Japs or the United Nations,

We know now whom Russia has thrown in with, and thanks to the Soviet, Hitler and his legions have been stymied. So the soul of Russia has been born again — in blood and mud and shivers.

Oddly enough: newscasters no longer refer to th Russia which was, under the czars, as Russia. They call it the "Soviet Union", which is now a fighting ally of both the British and the Americans.

The initials for Soviet Russia are S.U. which exactly reverses our familiar and well-loved U.S. So the U.S. and the S.U. will somehow get together to neutralize their opposite extremes of views, after the Victory is won, when it is time to arrange the New Peace with the Soviets as important members of the Big Four, Headline in a London newspaper: "U. S. Awaits News on Tiptoe" . . . . Are we fighting there, too?

When you say "the war" to which of the four wars now going on do you refer? The Sino-Japanese, in China; the American Japanese in the south Pacific, the Allied-Nazi in North Africa, or the RAF - AAF over western Europe? Not to mention a slight push in Burma and a bit of bombing in the Aleutians or over Wake Island? You pays your money and you have no choice. .

The enemy's motto: "Starvation for submission." Our motto: Food For Freedom.

MRS. O. M. REYNOLDS, Carmichael — "Japs got hold of the finest farm land in California and sent the money they made on it back to Japan to enable them to prepare for this war. I say send them back to Japan after it's over and see that they stay there."

S. F. POPULATION

San Francisco's population is 728,236 acrording to the tabulation of figures turned inby S. F. Air Raid Wardens on the basis of a nose-count. It is a gain of 93,700 over the 1940 census figure of 634,536.

Don't be surprised if California soon has a six-months divorce law. California lawmakers (many of them lawyers) don't like Reno stealing our business! .

What Ex-Governor Olson said to Governor Warren as they rode down together in the Capitol elevator after the inauguration wasn't what the Governor of North Carolina said the the Governor of South Carolina, or anything like that. Literally, it was this: "You don't know what a hell of a mess you're getting into, Warren." Mr. Warren is still smiling.

Brother... quit being so human!

★ Remember 1933 — when times were tough?

Maybe you didn't have a job. Maybe you and your wife and kids didn't eat too well — dress too well — have too much fun. Maybe you swore then that if things were ever different, you'd make up for it.

Chances are, today, things are different. You've got a job. You're getting good money. And you'd naturally like to have a little fun with it. You'd like to buy some of the "extras" that you and your family never had during the hard times.

It's only human to feel that way. But right now — we've got to quit being so human!

Right now, over in England, a bunch of fellows are getting ready to tackle one of the bloodiest jobs ever given an Army. In the Pacific, another bunch is playing hide-and-seek with an enemy that thinks the right treatment for a wounded prisoner is a bayonet through the guts. Others are sweating in Africa — still others are on cold, dreary, fog-bound islands near the Bering Sea.

That's their job.

But it's our job to give them the tools they need to win — by buying War Bonds! And so far, we aren't doing our full job!

Right now, there are still people who ought to be buying War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan — but aren't.

While plenty of people in the Plan are investing more than the 10% Uncle Sam needs, a lot are putting aside less than they can.

The fellows who aren't yet in the Plan — or, being in, haven't yet hit their 10% — aren't unpatriotic, or 5th Columnists, or anything like that. They're just human. They just haven't realized their Country's bitter, crying need — now! They haven't realized that Americans have been licked in battle for lack of planes, ships, tanks and bullets — tools that the money we'd like to spend for fun has got to buy!

Uncle Sam hopes that every single one of us will realize it — by January 1st, 1943. By that date, everybody on a payroll should be on a Payroll Savings Plan — and we'll "Top That 10% by New Year's."

So, if you aren't setting aside your 10%, go on in and tell 'em you want to raise your sights. Not to 6%, or 7% or 8% — but at least 10%. If you can put in more than 10% — do it. If you aren't yet in on the Payroll Savings Plan — sign up tomorrow!

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

If you are . . .

1. Already investing 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan — boost that 10% if you can.
2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet — sign up tomorrow.
3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager — and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help.
4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan, for any reason, go to your local bank, or wherever Bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

LEGION RECEIVES THANKS FOR AID INBLOOD PROGRAM

LEGION AIDS POSTER CONTEST TO ENCOURAGE PLANTING HOME GARDENS

Mrs. W. L. McWhirter and Mrs. J. V. Goold of Centerville were guests at the regular monthly meeting of Washington Township Post, American Legion, held on Wednesday night of last week in the Memorial Building at Niles. Mrs. McWhirter, chairman of the Township Red Cross Blood Procurement program thanked the Legion men very sincerely for the help they had given her staff in fitting up the auditorium for a procurement center, saying the visiting doctors and nurses were will pleased with the local arrangements. She asked that more Legion men and their friends donate more pints of blood for plasma, which is sorely needed by the armed forces at the front.

She said the blood gathering visits in Washington Township were about to be increased from once to twice a month, although the next extra visit had not yet been given a date Mrs. McWhirter asked the Legion men to spread the word that company employees, who are granted an hour off on company time to donate their blood, and who, are usually released within the hour, should not take the excuse to enjoy a few hours off, but should return to their places of employment at once.

Final report on the Legion's benefit midnight show held at the Niles Theatre on November 7 of last year was presented by the chairman, Walter Waynflete, who said a total of 442 tickets was sold at 55c each, including 5c federal tax, and that he had forwarded checks for a total of $243.10 to John R. Quinn, state chairman of this activity.

Adjutant Frank Veit reported he had received a check for $96 as the local Post's share of this activity, after tax, picture, printing and other expenses had been paid. One half of this sum will go to the Post's Auxiliary, to be used by both bodies for veterans' and children's welfare work locally.

Comrade E. D. Bristow said the Township Coordinating Council, which had met at Centerville that afternoon was sponsoring a Township-wide poster contest to spur the planting of Victory Gardens by everyone who has a garden plot. Waynflete suggested that a pen of chickens per family be added to the project. The Post voted $5 to wards the prizes to be offered grammar school students in the poster contest.

Comrade George Smith brought greetings from Hawthorne, Nevada where he is employed, and Comrade Poole of Newark was welcomed as a regular member.

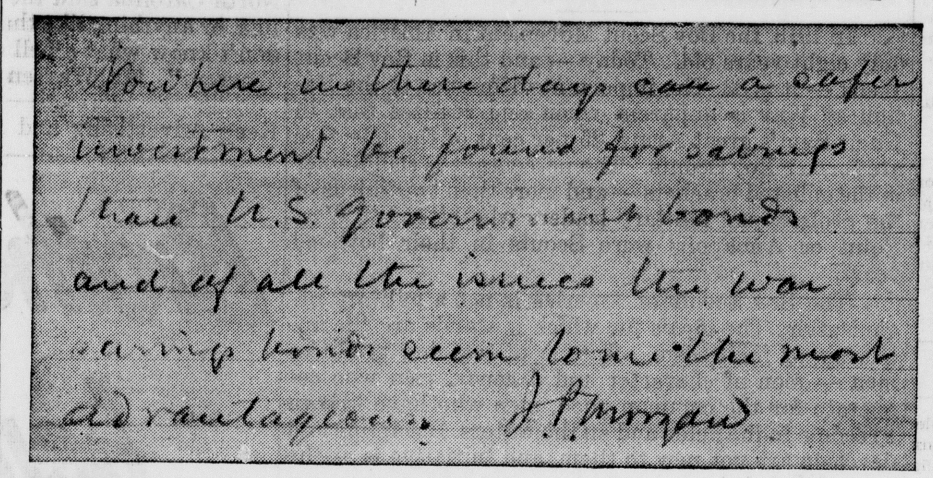
A MESSAGE FROM MR. J. P. MORGAN



Nowhere in these days can a safer investment be found for savings than U.S. Government bonds and of all the issues the war savings bonds seem to me the most advantageous. J.P. Morgan

WSS 623 A — U. S. Treasury Dept.

SAFE INVESTMENT: Americans who are looking for a good, safe investment, as well as a means of helping the Government to win the war, can well heed the above statement about War Bonds from J. P. Morgan, one of the nation's leading bankers.

"Nowhere in these days," says Mr. Morgan, "can a safer investment be found for savings than U. S. Government bonds and of all the issues the war savings bonds seem to me the most advantageous."

DETAILS ABOUT POINT RATIONING SYSTEM EXPLAINED

Housewives today were urged to take stock of their canned goods and to keep on hand a balanced supply of the rationable commodities to tide over the week of the "freeze", probably the last week of this month.

Mr., Roeding chairman of the OPA's local rationing board said: "The five cans per person to be allowed under the forthcoming rationing program, should be ample to tide everyone through the "freeze" period of one week when no rationed goods will be sold. This is the week during which registration for War Book No. 2 will take place, the exact dates to be announced soon."

Mr. Roeding explained that the allotment is five cans per person, so that a family of four would be allowed twenty cans for that week. He urged that housewives prepare now for that week so that no hardships will result.

He further explained that actual rationing of most processed canned and bottled foods and juices will begin immediately upon the completion of the week's "freeze" and that everyone, including infants, will be eligible for books. Meat rationing will follow soon after the issuance of War Book No. 2, it was stated.

Point Rationing will be simple for the housewife who will have to learn to live with it. Points will be used like a new type of money, and shoppers will learn by experience that point-rationing is a simple operation.

There will be three things for Madame Housewife to learn about food values: first the point value of that food; second: the nutrition value. and last: the money value.

Ration coupons are to be used like cash, and ration coupons cannot be used to make change. The housewife, after a little experience, will use the fewest stamps possible in exchange for rationed food. As never before, the health of her family is in her hands. The value of the food purchased must be weighed in the scale of nutrition, money cost. and point value.

Guard your ration books. They are more valuable than money. They cannot be exchanged or used by anyone except members of the immediate family. If you lose your gas or other ration book, or it is destroyed by fire, notify your Ration Board. If you find another persons ration book turn it in at once to your local Board. Township residents registered with the Board at Niles who move out of the Township must notify the Board, who will give them a transfer to the Board in their new community.

CURRENT AFFAIRS CLASS

Vice Principal Jack Rees of Washington Union High school conducted an interesting Current Affairs class lecture and discussion on Monday night in the Niles Grammar School auditorium before an appreciative audience. The subjects discussed were The Roosevelt-Churchill Strategy and Soviet Russia: our Ally in Europe. There will be no Current Affairs class at Niles next week, but one will be offered again the first of the week following.

TAB DELAY

It may be confusing to many motorists that they are receiving their 1943 Registration Cards but have not yet received their 1943 "tabs", states the Registration Department of the National Automobile Club. The reason for this is that the "tabs" have not yet been received from the manufacturer; consequently they cannot be mailed out. Therefore, motorists whose 1943 Registration Cards have arrived without "tabs", should not be concerned for they will arrive at a later date.

Please look here first!

FREE EMPLOYMENT OFFICE NOW OPEN IN CENTERVILLE

Walter Gamman, Manager of the United States Employment Service in Hayward, announces the establishment of a part-time office at Centerville in the office of the Alameda County Water District, S. Main Street, to serve local applicants for work and local employers.

This office will be open from 9 to 12 Wednesday mornings and 1 to 4 Saturday afternoons, with A. E. O'Donnell in charge. Farmers and industrial plants may list their needs for help, and persons seeking work, regardless of age or sex, are urged to leave their listing at the Centerville office. The demand for labor still far exceeds the supply.

TWO MORE AIR WARNING TOWERS BEING ARRANGED

ALVARADO — The third aircraft observation tower for Washington Township is now under construction at Warm Springs, it was disclosed today after approval of the structure was received from the Fourth Fighter Command.

The 18-foot tower will support a glass-enclosed room eight feet square, with a six-foot catwalk around the outside. Cost of the job will be $270, paid with funds collected in scrap metal collections, donations from observers and others.

Another observation post is to be constructed at Alvarado, and plans have been approved by the Chamber of Commerce here. A $30 donation from Fred Wiegman started the fund to pay costs of construction. J. C. Wasley, John Ralph and E. J. Wilson are members of the building committee.

EMPLOYERS MUST FILE WAGE REPORT

Employers should check up on the returns they must make direct to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. Wages and salaries paid employes in 1942 must be reported and the returns must be in Washington by February 15th, a month earlier than the income tax returns. Because of the lowered exemptions, now only $500 for single persons and $1,200 for married couples, reports must be made on many employes not previously covered.

If this important requirement has not already been met write the Collector of Internal Revenue for as many copies of Form 1099 as you have enmployes whose salaries are above these figures.

THE RAM THAT KNOWS THE RATTLE OF MACHINE GUNS

We take great pride in our livestock, for we have some of the best to be found anywhere.

England also takes pride in its livestock. Many of our breeds of cattle, sheep and horses come from there.

We think farming has been hard this past season, with the shortage of labor and machinery. It has been harder elsewhere. In England, for example, feed is scarce, meats are needed badly by the people, and German airmen machine gun the farm animals in the fields every chance they get. We must remember this all the time—and buy War Bonds —all that we possibly can.

There are two good reasons for buying War Bonds. The first is that it will give our boys the guns and planes and tanks they must have. The second is that War Bonds are a sound investment. They never depreciate in value. They return a third more than the original cost in ten years. You can cash them if you need the money any time after sixty days. Buy Bonds now—to help your country and to help yourself—at your bank or post office.
